

Here is a list of words you can use instead of 'walk'. Look up any words you are not sure of in a dictionary to understand the precise meaning of them. Liven up the sentences below by changing the word 'walk' for one of the words in the list.

amble creep dawdle flounce hike hobble limp lumber lurch march mosey pace prowl saunter shuffle sneak stagger step stomp stride stroll strut tiptoe totter traipse tramp trample trek trudge wade wander

1. The two boys tried to (walk) round the corner without being seen.
2. It was difficult to (walk) through the water to cross the stream.
3. On Sunday we all went for an enjoyable (walk) in the countryside.
4. Mel and her friends had to (walk) all around the town until they found the right outfit.
5. The soldiers set off on a (walk) across the moors to their new barracks.

Give two words from the list that can be used to describe the way these people would be walking:

- a young child
an angry person
a shopper
someone trying not to be seen an unsteady person
a tired person
an injured person