Headteacher's Headlines

What a fantastic week we have had in school, the children are settling in and working extremely hard in their new units. We have many things to look forward to in the upcoming term including football tournaments, healthy eating children and parent workshops and the start of our mystery readers. We hope you all have a lovely week.

Warmest Wishes,
Sarah

Friday Assemblies

Parent assemblies are now the last Friday in each month. Please come and join us to celebrate pupils' achievements both inside and outside of school. In our assembly on 27th September 3:00pm, we will be announcing both the winner of the sweets in the jar competition and the anticipated 'Grow your own sunflower' competition.

Guess the number of sweets in the Jar Competition

Competition for September in school is guess the number of sweets in the jar £1 a guess. If children would like to take part, please bring the £1 into school over the next two weeks. The winner will be announced at the monthly assembly, there will also be a couple of extra prizes too.

Sunflower Competition

Thank you so much to those of you who have sent in fantastic photos of your sunflowers! We have had some fantastic pictures and cannot wait to announce the winner at the monthly assembly.

Extra-Curricular Clubs

Thank you for registering on the extra-curricular clubs they next week and run for 5 weeks.

Mystery Readers

Please contact school admin@castlecarrock.cumbria.sch.uk if you would be interested in being a Mystery Reader and surprise your child/children by coming in to read to the class in school. Pupils love having their family, friends and relatives visit the classroom to read a favourite story aloud to the class. You can bring a book from home or read a book chosen from the library. We are excited to see you in school! Thank you for those who have confirmed this with us already.

Asda

If you shop in Asda please just head to the cash pot area on the app and select Castle Carrock
This will not affect your personal Asda cash pot usual incentives.
